Make Your Will Fortnight

16 – 27 April 2012

Moving house, having a baby, getting married or divorced... you never know when something will change your life.

Writing a will is something that many people put off time and time again. But now is the perfect time to make or update your existing will and make sure your loved ones are taken care of.

Local solicitors are kindly giving their time to write a standard will and donating the entire fee to Rossendale Hospice.

Call any participating solicitor (details on reverse) to take part in Make Your Will Fortnight which runs from 16 -27 April.
